CAR SHOPS WON FROM MORGAN BOYS

In a Nice Game of Ball Played at Everson, Saturday.

THE SCORE WAS THREE TO ONE

Good Pitching and Clever Fielding Featured Game That Had Been Eagerly Looked For—Notes From the Side Lines.

Special to The Courier.
EVerson, July 11.—The Car Shops team defeated Morgan in one of the most brilliant games played at Everson this season. Neither side was able to connect with the sphere for more than one base, the game by innings:

First Inning.
B. Pruey for Morgan took the plate and Horne shot three straight ones over but Mullik's mitt couldn't connect with the third pitched ball and Pruey pounced the ball and finally dropped it at the first station. He then stole second. F. Pruey struck out and B. Pruey tried to third on "Thomson" out at first. R. Klingensmith hit safe and Pruey reached across the pan for Morgan's first score. R. Klingensmith was thrown out at first.

In Everson's half, Horne reached first on an infield tap and was thrown out at second, trying to steal. The three men tapped safe and Carbaugh scored. Heberly struck out the next two.

Second Inning.
The first man was out at first. R. Klingensmith hit safe and stole second. Robbins fanned and the next man was out at first. The first two men hit safe and stole. Heberly fanned the next three men by brilliant hitting.

Third Inning.
Horne struck out the first three men. The first up for Everson flied to R. Klingensmith and the next man got to first on a fumble. Shulsky and Omschuck hit safe. Shulsky was thrown out trying for home by a brilliant play. F. Pruey to Robbins and the two men hit safe and two scores crossed the pan. Next man flied to short.

Fourth Inning.
Mullik availed over the spectators and kidnapped Thomson's foul tip. R. Klingensmith did the same way and M. Thomas flied to Bryno. Mullik and Horne hit safe and Heberly flied the next two and Bryno flied to second.

Fifth, Sixth and Seventh.
The first up struck out for Morgan and everybody died at first for Everson. In the sixth and seventh Horne got two strikeouts and Heberly was hit freely for tip flied. Everybody died at first.

Eighth Inning.
R. Klingensmith got first on an error. A. Thomas and Robbins and Heberly went out on outfield flies. First man went out on a foul tip and the next man hit a Texas leaguer between end and second. Mullik was hit on the back by a pitched ball between first and second. Mullik was thrown out on the line by Robbins in a brilliant play. The next man died at first.

Ninth Inning.
Car Shops 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 1
Struck out by Horne 11, by Heberly 8. Hit by pitched ball, Mullik, Cumples, Slavin and Lottie.

Notes of the Game.
Among the fans were Supervisors John Shook, P. C. Kothly and James Lynch. Among the for men were Henry Connell, Frank McGurgen, Edward Quinn and several car shop foremen.

A car shop player was caught in oversteering third by two yards but Lottie called him safe. Car shops acknowledged the man was out but Lottie held his decision. This was partly responsible for one of Car Shops scores.

"Puss" Horne was on his mettle and pitched a brilliant game. He fanned the first three men up in the third. Three times Robbins caught men on the third base line in brilliant plays.

"Gon" Heberly was also in the twilight and pitched splendid ball. In the third he struck three men out with men on second and third.

Manager John Gordon of the Car Shops teaming has congregated a hunky bunch of youngsters.

The game was devoid of wrangling and the players demeanor during the game brought comments from Superintendents Lynch and Kothly. The game established an amiable feeling between the two teams.

Morgan fans and players took the defeat cheerfully and they made the evening hilarious with noise on the trip home. About 200 fans accompanied the team home.

BRYAN OR THE BREWERS?

Indiana Democrats "In the Air" About Asking Peerless Leader to Speak.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 11.—Members of the Indiana Brewers' association have formally protested before the Democratic state central committee against the bringing of William Jennings Bryan into the state to make speeches this fall and the committee is "up to the air" over the proposition. Many of these members think it inadvisable to have Bryan in the state owing to his attitude in Nebraska toward local option and especially his advocacy of the county as the unit but they fear the effect of ignoring Bryan upon the rank and file of the party, while other Democrats believe that the failure to ask him to come here would be disastrous to the legislative tickets in dry counties.

HOT WAVE 2,100 FEET DEEP

Interesting Observations Taken by Balloonist Charles J. Glidden.

Lowell, Mass., July 11.—That the present hot wave reaches an altitude of 2,100 feet was the discovery made by Charles J. Glidden, who made an ascension in the balloon Massachusetts.

As the balloon ascended the thermometer registered 90 degrees and there was a northerly wind blowing. At the highest elevation the thermometer dropped twenty degrees to 70 and the wind changed its direction completely, blowing from the southwest. During his ascension upon prior experiences Glidden was prepared to say that the present hot wave, having a depth of 2,100 feet, will last two more days and will probably pass away on Monday afternoon or evening.

Y. M. C. A. Boys Enjoying Camp Life

In the Mountains at Rogers' Mills.

CAMP MOHICAN, Rogers' Mills, July 10.—All is joy at Camp Mohican. No one has been sick (save from the distress from overeating) and everybody is obeying rule 1, which says that each fellow is to have the best time of his life.

Rain does not dampen the spirits of the boys, for the spacious dining room 16x30, affords a splendid place for indoor recreation. Probably the most enjoyable amusement thus far has been the "chutes." These are made of heavy boards, just wide enough for a fellow to slide down on and while the slide is about 20 feet in length, the top being fastened to a large tree about eight feet above the bank, extending to the water. Each fellow gets his wading suit thoroughly wet and the slide is "sopped" and then a continuous procession of boys keeps the water in a constant turmoil.

Much amusement was caused when Secretary Chase appeared in his bathing suit and announced his intention of testing the "chutes." An extra coat of soap suds was poured on the slide and his bathing suit thoroughly soaked and then—splash. The river rose perceptibly and Secretary Chase emerged from the water and pronounced the "chutes" great. For the benefit of the parents who might fear their boys would be in danger from such a trip as this, it should be said that the water is only two and a half feet deep.

Saturday a detachment of the fellows liked about a mile up the road and secured a 10-foot flag pole and "Old Glory" and the camp pennant were hung to the breeze to the tune of "The Star Spangled Banner" played by the Camp Band.

Sunday was observed with a special service held in the grove, which all the boys attended and enjoyed. Several of the boys parents spent the day with them, to the enjoyment of all. The boys were especially pleased with the menu of Sunday's dinner, as follows: Baked ham, mashed potatoes, hot biscuits, stewed tomatoes, pumpkin pie and coffee. Just to give an idea of the quantity of food disposed of, it might be mentioned that 10 biscuits were baked by the father for Sunday's dinner. And yet the boys are always eager for the "hush call." Who wouldn't be a boy and go to camp?

A Model Sermon on Model Husbands.

By Dr. H. C. Wolfe.

Rev. H. C. Wolfe preached a very interesting sermon last evening in the Methodist Episcopal Church, which was listened to by a large audience and was thoroughly appreciated by those present. The subject of the address was "Model Husbands." In the course of his remarks the speaker said:

"Every thing that can be said as to the importance of educational advantages for women must be emphasized for our young men, if they are to become successful home builders. For they are to assume the large responsibilities of business and the duties and cares of a happy home. You have had few doubts as to the desirability of their education, but even-indulgence at home is often one of the principal causes of untimely and spoiling of a young man by a kind but mistaken father or mother, and is the cause of much trouble that follows.

"I knew a good, kind mother who gave an excuse for not attending her church, that she had several large boys and it was her duty to remain at home and see that they were properly educated. Now those boys partook of a carefully prepared dinner each day of the week and they could well afford to allow their mother the privilege and spiritual comfort of attending church on Sunday and have taken their dinner an hour later that day. Those same boys will carry these ideas and habits into their own homes when they marry and probably expect their wives to deny themselves their sacred privilege just as they allowed their mother to do.

Love's Sweet Duty.

"Love must ever be the cornerstone of a happy home. More than fortune, social position, or the glittering bubbles of honor that may come to you, will, to a true woman, be the love you bestow upon her who trusts you for all. The 'honeymoon' should continue and like the swan's plumage, grow whiter, increasing in lustre with age, and whose song of sweetest notes it utters in death. Consider what a girl gives up for you when she leaves her happy home where she had the care of a kind father and the love of a good mother. A warm welcome ever awaits her in the old home, but it will never be the same. She has registered a life vow to build a home for another. The Bible teaches that the marriage relation is more binding than the civil relation. For this new home both leave the old home and become one, to build another.

"Lord Beaconsfield's wife was riding with him in a carriage to the House of Lords, where he was to make one of his great speeches. Her hand was caught in the carriage door, causing great pain, yet she made no mention of her suffering until he had delivered his great speech, for fear of diverting his mind and preventing his success. Some of the greatest men have realized and acknowledged the large share that their wives have had in their success. Wendell Phillips said of his wife, 'She was my inspiration.' Gladstone's wife stood ready with his coat when he was through speaking. James Russell Lowell's wife was in sympathy with every great reform he advocated. Often there is a power behind the throne mightier than the throne. There is an inspiration in a noble woman that ought to make a noble man.

A Man of Affairs.

"A model husband should be ambitious to succeed in the business life. If he is learning a trade, studying a profession or mastering a business, he is laying up stores of treasures which will be useful to him in the future. Many young men are moved by a noble ambition to make a place for themselves in the world. They are inspired by the lives of noble men like Daniel in Babylon, Joseph in Egypt, of Lincoln and Garfield and scores of others. These young men have endowed the drink habit; they are striving to make a name for honesty, reliability and sobriety that will rejoice the hearts of parents and friends and fill the life of the girl they love, not only with rays of joy, but with things accomplished. She believes in you, do not disappoint her, but by your best efforts make real all her fond expectations. One of the most successful real estate dealers told me that he never made an important investment without consulting his wife and that her judgment was generally correct. A man in business will never make a safe take if he consults his wife. She will generally detect any wrong or impropriety. She often will see as by intuition. In a moment, what practical business men will not figure out in a week by a process of reasoning.

"Take your wife into your confidence and if she is a true hostess man you will never regret it. She will be a real helpmate and advisor. I would not be misunderstood—do not bring to your home the cares and annoyances of your business and unload them on your wife and fill her with nervous anxiety. She has cares and troubles of her own and the happiness of the home should be preserved at all hazards, but both will be the better for exchanging the confidences of life's battle.

Home Highest Interest.

"Make your home and not your business the center of your life. You may succeed in business, but through inattention or neglect your home may be destroyed. You may fail in attaining the greatest business success but you still have that most precious of all possessions, a happy home. Remember, my good husband, that your wife has the first mortgage on your spare time, and you ought to give her a reasonable share of your companionship. We will not stop to say all about some kind of clubs that might be said with profit—only this, that the club life that takes a husband out of

Fixing the Crossing.

Supervisors Jesse K. Hutson has had a force of men busy for several days repairing the Pittsburgh street crossing of the Southwest Pennsylvania railroad through here. The rails were raised and new ballast put in to give the tracks solidity where they are used as street crossings for traffic.

Had Good Showers.

Sunday was another hot day and intermittent small showers appeared several times during the forenoon and concentrated into a generous down-pour in the middle of the afternoon. It was beneficial to garden crops but much hay was flattened and the oats fields showed the effect of the heavy rain.

Wheat is Ripening.

The wheat fields are turning yellow for harvest at last. This has been the latest season for wheat in many years so far as is noticeable just in this locality and no wheat has been harvested in this immediate neighborhood. Some localities near here wheat was cut last week. Clover hay is now being made and Saturday was a busy day in many hay fields.

Change Hours of Service.

The Rev. E. O. Wolf, who has been recently appointed pastor of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, will, for the next four weeks beginning Sunday, July 10, hold services only in the evening at 7:30, in order that he may

TROOPERS IN DEMAND

Fame of the Pennsylvania Cossacks Brings Them Nice Offers.

HARRISBURG, July 11.—The State Police Department is forced to hold examinations every month to keep the four troops of the State's force up to the required strength. The demand for men who have been trained in the State's service on the part of the railroads and industrial corporations and mining companies is growing and hardly a week goes by without one or more resignations from the force. The reputation of the State police has been established by the discipline and the work of the troopers and the troopers are much desired as special policemen and guards.

On July 1 no less than seven men were enlisted and in August it is probable that more vacancies will occur. Fortunately the department is never at a loss for men, there always being on file a large list of applications of the very best sort. The applications come from all over the country, former soldiers and marines, to say nothing of national guardsmen, being among those who apply.

The training given is considered excellent and the men have no trouble in securing places when their terms expire. However, they do not wait and numerous cases have occurred in which the troops left as soon as they had been well broken in. In addition to railroads and other corporations the men have been taken by the Isthmian Canal Commission for the Panama police and for the services in the Philippines and Porto Rico.

BAND OF ARMED KENTUCKY MEN

May Invade Newark, O., to Avenge Lynching of Detective.

GOV. HARMON BEGINS ACTION

Buckeye Executive Announces He Will Suspend Mayor Atherton and Charges Will Be Brought Against Sheriff Links.

Cleveland, July 31.—Cleveland associates of Carl Etherington, the anti-alcohol detective who was lynched at Newark Friday night, declared that Hartwell Etherington, his father, would head a band of mountaineers from Kentucky that would invade the Ohio city to seek revenge for his son's death.

It also was said that he would offer a big reward for the names of the ringleaders of the mob. The elder Etherington will receive $5,000 from the anti-alcohol league, which, it is said, will be offered as the reward.

Private advices from Williamsburg, Ky., said that the invading party would be heavily armed and if it marched upon Newark there likely would be a recurrence of the trouble of last Friday. The elder Etherington, in speaking of the death of his son, said, according to a dispatch received:

"My son was justified in what he did. No other man would allow him to pursue him without attempting to defend himself. It is a shame for any city government to have officers who even can't take care of those who are there to enforce the law. I will see that things are made right."

Judson Harmon, governor of Ohio, accompanied by Adjutant General Woybacht, made a personal investigation of the lynching at Newark. They inspected the jail and interviewed Mayor Atherton, Sheriff Links and County Prosecutor Smyth. Advice from Columbus stated that the governor today will receive Mayor Atherton and will file charges against Sheriff Links preparatory to his removal. The governor feels that neither official made any proper defense against the mob, otherwise the lynching would have been averted.

The funeral of Carl Etherington, the dead detective, was attended by hundreds of persons.

More Trouble Feared at Newark. Newark, O., July 31.—It is admitted here that the trouble culminating in the lynching of Detective Etherington is not at an end. While it is not expected soon, it is believed that further violence may occur.

Edward Hale, who was in charge of the force of detectives who came here from Columbus, O., issued a statement in Columbus to the effect that he would organize an armed posse of fifty detectives and serve warrants on Mayor Atherton and Sheriff Links for not upholding the laws of the state. Hale threatens to mount his men at the outskirts of the town and ride into the city to effect the serving of warrants.

This matter was widely debated and it was the opinion of many prominent persons that such a procedure would result in further aggravating violence.

Refuses to Become Dry. The whole trouble in a nutshell is the refusal of Newark to become a dry city. Under the local option law, passed eighteen months ago, the total county vote rules. At the last election held in Licking county Newark voted wet by 1,800 majority, but the county voted dry. This resulted in closing the saloons of Newark, although the people were in favor of the sale of liquor. Under the law, however, the saloons were closed, but in their stead springing up many "speakeasies" in all parts of the city.

From those in a position to know it is learned that fully as much excitement have been sold in Newark since the coming of the local option as before it.

It is also the belief here that the lynching is going to have a potent effect in Ohio with regard to the local option law and the sale of liquor. From all sides is heard the opinion given by attorneys, business men and others that the Ross law will soon be repealed and a new law enacted providing for local option where the people favor it.

The rioting had its beginning through the enforcement of a law called "search and seizure." By this law any person in the county can make an information before any magistrate authorizing him to make a search and seize evidence to be used in a case of illegal liquor selling.

While the city is quiet Mayor Atherton ordered all near-saloon, where soft drinks are sold, closed until further notice. Additional officers and deputies have been sworn in as a precautionary measure.

Mayor to Be Suspended. Columbus, O., July 31.—Governor Harmon has announced he will suspend the mayor of Newark and that charges are to be placed against Sheriff Links in connection with the lynching of Etherington, the anti-alcohol detective, by a mob of saloonists.

GENERAL WOOD TO TAKE UP NEW DUTIES.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Major General Leonard Wood will take up the duties of chief of staff and head of the United States army this week. General Wood's taking over the reins of administration of the office of chief of staff places the entire army under the command of two physicians who have actually and actively received medical training. Major General Fred C. Ainsworth, adjutant general of the army, is the other physician. General Ainsworth is also just eight months General Wood's junior in appointment. General Wood will not be fifty until next October. It was while General Wood was serving in the west as an assistant surgeon that he met Roosevelt, then doing the duty of a cowboy. The acquaintance ripened into the friendship which later procured for General Wood rapid promotion. As chief of staff he will be the directing hand in the preparation of plans for the national defense and for the mobilization of the military forces in time of war.

LOEB A VISITOR

At the Summer Capital and Gossip About Governorship Starts.

Beverly, Mass., July 31.—William Loeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, is in Beverly. Loeb was secretary to the president when Colonel Roosevelt was in office. He was and probably still is closer to the president than any man in American politics. Also he is a close friend of President Taft. The president promoted him to his present position, one of the highest salaries in his disposition. Between President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and Loeb there is an intimate bond of friendship.

Loeb will call at the summer capital this afternoon. He will discuss with the president the national political situation. Out of that conference may come much. Friends of the president here say it indicates clearly that between the president and Colonel Roosevelt there is the best of good feeling and an understanding which is implied if not expressed.

There are some politicians here who say the collector came to Beverly to get Taft's O. K. on the boom for the governorship of New York, which has been started by his friends at home. It was stated that the conference between Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Hughes at Oyster Bay later in the week may be an aftermath of the one here today and that Loeb, with the endorsement of President Taft, will get those of his former chief and the governor.

ROMANCE IS CUT SHORT BY POLICE.

Minister and Girl, With Whom He Eloped, Are Found.

COUPLE TAKEN AT KANSAS CITY

Both Were From Schenectady, N. Y., Where the Clergyman Had Been Holding Meetings—Neither Admit Being Repentant.

Kansas City, July 31.—The story that the minister of thirty-five and a girl of fourteen from Schenectady, N. Y., told the police after their arrest here is the familiar recital of the runaway pair up to a certain point. It found that it fits itself above the ordinary romance.

Both admit they did wrong, but neither is repentant. And both declare they purposely let the house folks know where they were so they could be taken back, just to get even with the girl's father.

The runaway pair, Rev. Clinton B. Whitaker and Miss Grace Graham Whitaker, were arrested in a boarding house here. They were living there as Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elsworth Artwell.

A year ago last November Sharp arrived at Schenectady from Rochester with his wife. He began his work in the community. After he preached at the home of Mrs. Whitaker, a few miles out of town, Whitaker, his wife, his son William, seven years old, and his three daughters, Cora, eleven years old; Helen, four, and Eunice, fourteen, were all converted.

April 25 came charges that Sharp was paying too much attention to the beautiful daughter of his congregation. He resigned from his pulpit and his wife left him to go to her home in Rochester. But Eunice Graham Whitaker refused to believe the stories. One night she went to the minister to confide a story to him. A note from Sharp to the girl followed the next day. That night they eloped.

"I loved her," the minister confessed to Captain Whitaker. "She is only a child, but I loved her. I am willing to endure punishment. I am willing to go to the penitentiary for years. I am willing to be tarred and feathered, for I know the only wrong I have done is a thousand one. I know I should not have taken the girl away. But I did it and my heart was full of sympathy and when that sympathy ruled my better judgment."

Captain Whitaker turned to the girl and said, "Would you rather be with this man than your father and mother?"

"Yes, I asked him to take me away from Schenectady. I wanted never to see my father or mother again. I pleaded with him, and finally he said I would go. He has kept every promise he has made and he has treated me as if I were his daughter."

"We saw my father's denial that he had mistreated me in the Schenectady papers. I answered the denial and told exactly where we were and how we were living and sent it to the paper. Then we were arrested."

"Did you ever intend to marry him?" the captain asked.

"Never," the girl said resolutely.

GETTING WEARY OF THE ATTACKS.

Real Democrats Are Resenting Assaults Upon Their Party's Candidate.

THIRD PARTY IS NOT LIKELY

Grim Has Sterling Record as Democrat and is the Best Offering of His Party—Republicans United and Harmonious With Success Assured.

The professional disturbers who have been so busy in the determination to promote a third or distinctly independent State ticket in Pennsylvania. The renegade members of both old parties, calling themselves insurgents merely to conceal their identity as party wreckers and assuming the role of patriots when actually they are rebels, have since the recent State conventions been wiggling about in fits of hysteria, demanding more tickets and more candidates or at least tickets and candidates of their choosing. The first and original hope of these wiggling statesmen, these "better than thou" fellows was to have Colonel Roosevelt lead them into a national revolt. That hope, as every one knows, was barren. Colonel Roosevelt has returned to his home and has promptly and with his own force allied himself with the national administration and has extended to President Taft his support and confidence. That killed at one fell swoop the proposition to organize a Pinchot party to embarrass the regular Republican administration. Then the political discontents turned their attention to Pennsylvania. They proposed that W. J. Bryan should be allowed to name W. H. Berry as the Democratic candidate for governor. The Democrats of the State, or a large majority of them, refused to join in the Bryan-Berry movement and the party was to be wrecked as a consequence. Then followed the regular Republican convention. There were several candidates who carried their ambitions to the meeting place of the convention. The very best interests of the whole people were weighed carefully and with due consideration and John K. Tener, accepted by a vast majority of the convention delegates as the best possible candidate, was nominated. Then the discontents who had failed to control the movement to make a Pinchot party and who had been whipped at every turn in the effort to make Mr. Bryan's man Berry the Democratic candidate, but had not been heard in the conference which made Mr. Tener the regular Republican candidate attacked both the regular Democratic and the regular Republican candidates for Governor and pretended and preached that the people could best be served by the formation of an independent party which should have restless discontents on its ticket. The whole movement was simply a last-ditch scheme to advance selfish political interests. The fair play people in Pennsylvania, and they are vastly in the majority, are determined to reject this outrage. From what possible measurement or standard would either Mr. Bryan or Mr. Berry, his Pennsylvania representative, be better than either John K. Tener, the regular Republican candidate for Governor, or Webster Grim, the regular Democratic candidate for the same office. To be sure, Mr. Berry has been at large in the State for three or four years, has bought himself house with the one and only view of getting himself into some good office. Ever since Colonel J. M. Guffey, the head and front of the Democratic organization in the State, found Mr. Berry as an obscure figure in the eastern end of the State and made him the candidate of Democracy for State Treasurer, Mr. Berry has been playing to the galleries with view to promoting only his selfish interests. At no time has Mr. Berry been known to make a move that was not intended to attract personal applause. As a fact Mr. Berry has never been a Democrat. His sympathy and support have always gone to the prohibitionists. When he was unable to deliver the Democratic organization, bag and baggage, to the prohibition party for his own advancement he quarreled with Democracy and Democratic leaders and since then has been out to wreck poor old Democracy. There are other truthful things which might be said against Mr. Berry, but he is not a candidate and is not likely to be a serious one. As a fact Webster Grim is beyond question the best offering that Democracy of Pennsylvania could make. Those who know him best understand thoroughly that he is sincere, honest and fairly capable. He is, however, a real Democrat and that alone should and of course will prevent his election. But to all intents and purposes he is a bigger man than Mr. Berry. He is just as honest and earnest and as a Democrat his public record is absolutely without a flaw. The Democratic workers of the State have grown weary of the attack upon Mr. Grim and they are protesting with eloquent force against the unprovoked assaults. In several counties of the State Democrats in convention have been emphatic in declaring that their patience had been exhausted by the discontents demanding that the Democratic State convention be reconvened so that another candidate may be named. The real Democrats are entirely satisfied with Mr. Grim and they are wholly dissatisfied with the methods being employed by the Bryan contingent in the State who are not opposed to Grim but are deeply grieved that Colonel Guffey managed the recent Democratic State convention and defeated the Bryan fellows by administering to them a real good whipping and a much deserved rebuke. An independent ticket is not likely under such circumstances and the real Democrats of the State fully realize that the fight against Mr. Grim is a delusion and a snare. It is but a cry of foul on the part of the Bryan contingent to get one more chance at Colonel Guffey or wreck the Democracy because Mr. Bryan is not allowed to dictate its candidates.

In the meantime let the parties multiply. The more parties there are in the approaching campaign in Pennsylvania the larger will be the majority of Mr. Tener for Governor. His nomination has pleased the rank and file of the Republican party as no other nomination could have pleased them. His nomination came direct from the Republican workers of the State and the Republican workers are abundantly able and willing to elect him. There is not a sore place in the Republican party of the State. The party leaders are assured of the loyal support of the party followers and the party candidates are confident of success at the hands of the united and harmonious party. If the discontents are able to extract comfort from an additional party or two let us have them without number. The "Outlook," the leading up-to-date magazine of the nation of which Theodore Roosevelt is an editor, says editorially that Mr. Tener's election is an easy matter.

CHINESE CUNNING.

An Official's Subtle Scheme For Securing His Prisoners.

One of the funniest stories about Chinatown is not really Chinese. It was told by a British consul at one of the recent ports. He arrested nine disreputable Chinese, intending to turn them over to the tender mercies of the native magistrate next morning. Meanwhile he gave them into the custody of a Chinese policeman, telling him to lock them up, though there was no jail at the consulate. But the policeman was equal to the emergency. He solemnly saluted, saying, "I obey" and marched his men off. Soon he returned and announced that they were safely caged.

The consul was curious to see how and where. He followed his policeman to the jail. There he saw the nine prisoners dancing round the consul's daughter, busily chattering the Chinese equivalent of "ring around a rosy." Whenever the dance showed signs of flagging the policeman stirred them up with a long pole. They seemed at first slight to be holding each other's hands, but looking closer, the consul saw that they were handcuffed together.

"Well," said the consul, "if they are chained in a ring around the daughter they can certainly not get away. But why do you make them dance?" "Ah," answered the Chinese policeman, with infinite cunning, "so that they cannot climb up the pole and get away!"

A KING'S DOWNFALL.

Louis Philippe's Lack of Nerve When the Crisis Came.

Baroness Ronde wrote in her diary the following account of the abdication of Louis Philippe of France on the day of that remarkable occurrence: "An anti-de-camp of the minister of war who was in the king's cabinet when he abdicated gave me a detailed account of this most singular piece of cowardice. He had reviewed the troops in the carriage on horseback, highly roused, when a cry was raised, 'Vive les Bourbons!' No one had any orders; no one gave any. The mob rushed forward, shouting, 'Vive la republique!—vive les troupes!' to promulge only his selfish interests. At no time has Mr. Berry been known to make a move that was not intended to attract personal applause. As a fact Mr. Berry has never been a Democrat. His sympathy and support have always gone to the prohibitionists. When he was unable to deliver the Democratic organization, bag and baggage, to the prohibition party for his own advancement he quarreled with Democracy and Democratic leaders and since then has been out to wreck poor old Democracy. There is one very interesting fact connected with meteors that have streaked the earth. Hundreds of them have been examined and found to contain actual remains—that is, the very lowest forms of life. This indicates that they are parts of a world that burst into fragments long ago. What a thought—a world broken up and scattered through space! Maybe we had another moon once, but that broke into pieces and these are the pieces, and maybe they are parts of the planet that once revolved between Mars and Jupiter. Over 500 of the larger pieces of this planet have been discovered and catalogued. One of these flew away inside of Mars' orbit. Why may not many of the smaller pieces and these still meteorites be they? It is probably so.—Columbus Journal.

Defective Armor Plates on Two American Dreadnaughts Start a Strict Investigation by Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Secretary of Navy Meyer has ordered a strict investigation into defective armor plates on the Dreadnaughts North Dakota and Utah. News of the startling discovery became public as the result of a protracted conference held at the Charlestown, (Mass.) navy yard, where the great battleship was recently placed in commission after a record breaking trip from the yards of her builders, the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, at Quincy, Mass. The conference was over the legal phases involved—the cost of replacing the armor and the responsibility. Present at the important gathering were representatives of the New York Shipbuilding Company, which is building the Utah; the Midvale Steel Company, which has supplied armor for many American warships, and a number of government experts.

COKE MADE EARLY AT FAIRCHANCE.

F. H. Oliphant Burned It
There Back in

ITS FIRST USE IN FURNACES

Was in Connection With Charcoal as a Fuel to Smelt Iron Ore—The Early Experience of Providence and Calhoun Campbell.

In 1837 coke iron was made by F. H. Oliphant at Fairchance furnace, on the site of which the town of Fairchance later developed. This may be said to have been the primitive beginning of the coke making industry in the Connelville region, now the greatest producer of coke on the globe.

In 1849 there was not a single blast furnace in the country that used coke wholly as fuel to smelt iron, but a number of them used it in connection with charcoal. It was not until 1853 that coke began to be used wholly as a blast furnace fuel in this country and in the latter year it was so used in the Clinton furnace, the successor of which is still standing in operation on the south bank of the Monongahela river, opposite the Monongahela house, Pittsburgh.

It may be asserted, with positive-ness that it was the excellent quality and, at that time, belated inexhaustible supply of Connelville's coal that caused Pittsburgh to take pre-eminence as the seat of iron manufacture in the seventh and eighth decades of the last century. Only eastern Pennsylvania, where anthracite coal took the place of charcoal as coke did in the western counties of the Commonwealth, did from manufacture persist and make headway.

They accumulated about 500 bushels of coke during the time that McCormick and Campbell were building two furnaces on which they looked for the convenience down the Youghiogheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers to Cincinnati, O., where they found foundrymen suspicious of its efficiency, and peddled it at 5 cents per bushel to householders, blacksmiths and others.

After three more weeks of patient experience to dispose of their stock of coke, and having left in their original cargo to a Cincinnati foundryman for a grist mill. This ended the first coke making venture in the Connelville region.

HELLO BILL

Is the Cry That Has Been Taken Up in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., July 11.—The City of the Straits today is abuzzing with the thousands of members of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, who are here in annual session, a grand time.

For months the various committees have been at work, and for the last few weeks the city has been alive with workmen putting up the decorations. Woodward avenue is a lane of purple, with great white stucco arches and columns, while every building in the downtown district is gorgeously decorated. Accommodations have been made for the hospital corps, automobile corps and every other conceivable kind of a committee corps to insure the comfort of the visitors. It is estimated that 100,000 Elks are here accompanied by 200,000 wives and sisters.

MORE RECORDS SMASHED

French Aviator Flies 245 Miles Without Stop.

Rheims, France, July 11.—The aviation meeting closed with further record smashing. The weather was exceptionally favorable. The day finished with a magnificent flight by Olesiegers in a Bleriot machine. He beat the records for 200 and 300 kilometers. He had been four hours in the air when the meeting was officially closed, but he kept going until he had reached 245 miles without stopping. His time was 5 hours, 3 minutes, 6 seconds.

Maniet and Aughr beat the passenger carrying records, the former carrying five passengers twenty-six miles and the latter one passenger eighty-four miles. Both used Bleriot machines.

CUSTOMS MEN WATCH

For Smuggled Gems Believed to Be Worth $400,000.

New York, July 11.—Customs officials at New York have been warned to watch for the diamonds valued at $400,000 smuggled last week from Ludersitz bay in the German province of Southwest Africa. The first reports were that the smugglers were aboard a German liner, but now there are suspicions that the diamonds will be carried to New York.

Madden Lane Importers say it is not likely that the smugglers will try to get the stones out and polished in New York. Usually the diamond manufacturers in New York do not cut stones in the smaller sizes and most of the smuggled stones are small. The small stones could be cut in Antwerp and Amsterdam without attracting notice.

As the diamonds are in the rough they could be brought to New York without a demand for duty here, as the 10 per cent duty on diamonds imported into the United States applies only to cut stones. If the smugglers come here and are arrested it will be a courtesy to Germany.

The Way to Float.
This is the advice of an old swimmer to those who cannot swim. "Any human being who will have the presence of mind to clasp the hands behind his back and turn the face toward the zenith may float at ease and in perfect safety in tolerably still water. When you first find yourself in deep water you have only to consider yourself an empty pitcher. Let your mouth and nose and the top of your head be the highest part of you and you are safe. But thrust up one of your long hands and down you go, turning up the handle tips over the pitcher." There are reason and logic in this.

Effective Home Cure for Tuberculosis.

It is a serious matter when the lungs are affected. A trip away or to a sanatorium is not only tremendously expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are beautiful, but none can safely return to their homes.

Ekman's Alternative is effective in curing Bronchitis, Asthma and more serious affections of the lungs. No leaving home and friends is necessary. For instance:
231 E. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J.
Gentlemen: In the Fall of 1907, I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise spittle and my physician then told me to go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Ekman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the next week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now four years since my cure has been effected and I can not praise Ekman's Alternative too highly. I have recommended it to others with excellent results.

OLD HOME WEEK WAS BIG SUCCESS.

The Automobile Parade on Saturday Attracted Crowd.

MANY MACHINES WERE IN LINE

Constable Has Hot Battle With Forer at Alice—Local and Personal signer He Went to Place Under Attention.

Special to The Courier.
MT. PLEASANT, July 11.—At 12 o'clock Saturday night, the Old Home Week with its noise and bustle, its happiness and its reunion of old friends, passed into memory.

The carnival attractions and hand concerts monopolized the attention of the pleasure seekers on the evening day. In the evening about two hundred automobiles from all over Westmoreland, Fayette and Somerset counties took part in the automobile parade which proved to be the largest exhibition of its kind ever held in this county. Following this the Ocala Tribe of the Red Men of this place accompanied by tribes from Pleasant Unity, Youngwood, West Newton and Greensburg, garbed in elaborate costumes marched over the principal streets of town. The above parades were witnessed by immense crowds of people.

The last flight made by Harry Gintel in his airplane was the most successful of the week. He flew about three miles, completely encircling the town. While making the last lap of his long flight, his machine struck a strong air current and while battling against it the engine became dangerously hot and he was forced to descend. Mr. Gintel said last evening that this was the worst place for strong air currents that he ever encountered. He will leave today for the Great Lakes where he is scheduled to make several flights.

Most of the decorations have been taken down and today the town is dead. The carnival left yesterday for Anzbridge, a steel town below Pittsburgh. The various committees are very busy auditing the accounts of the celebration. Although no official statement has been made by those in charge of the festival, yet it is very plain that the town is richer by a few thousand dollars at least by the celebration. Five thousand Old Home Week souvenir books were sold and as the composition, printing and mailing were more than paid for by the advertisements, at least $500 must have been cleared by this alone. Enough money was subscribed by the citizens to cover all the expenses. Thus leaving the license fees and the percentage from concessions as clear money. The citizens expect a full financial statement as soon as possible.

Keystones Open Season.
The Keystone Athletic Club opened their baseball season on the Diamond this Saturday afternoon by defeating the Keystone team of Pottsville by a score of 29 to 2. The Pottsville aggregation was outclassed at every point in the game and the heavy hitting of the locals made the game too one-sided to be exciting, but rather interesting. The best bats were: Mt. Pleasant, Long, McPherson and McCormick; Pottsville, Frazier, Higgins and Miller. On next Saturday afternoon the Keystone will play the fast Jeannette team at this place. Manager Roy Long of this place would like to arrange games with all fast teams in this section.

Arrests Were Few.
Police records show that only 15 arrests were made during the Old Home Week celebration held here last week. Of this number twenty-three were charged with drunkenness. This reflects great credit upon the moral standard of this community. Although Chief of Police Edward Stevens had an extra force of 15 men on duty they were not needed as the crowds were very orderly. Credit is due all the police officers for the excellent protection they gave the town.

Work Started on Paving.
Work was begun this morning on the paving of South Diamond and Bridgeport streets, which contract was given the Thomas Plett Company of Morgantown, W. Va., last Friday evening. They being the lowest of eight bidders by $1,200. Their bid was $11,465 for both streets. Last year the same company paved three streets here. The contract for the brick will be let on July 15.

Local and Personal.
The working of straightening out the heavy curve in the West Penn street car line at Buckeye, south of town, was resumed this morning after a week's lay off. It will take at least six weeks to complete the work. Bernard O'Connor of Conneltsville is in charge of the work.

Strickler's general store has been closed and the stock will be sold at sheriff's sale on Saturday. This is the oldest business house in town, having been established on the Diamond about 50 odd years ago. During that time it has been open practically all of the time and proved itself a success financially until a short time ago.

The L. S. Smith Bros., proprietors of the Anchor Glass factory are preparing to build an addition to the main building. The improvements are necessary on account of the increased business.

Hundreds of Children Given Free Baths in the Streets of New York Each Day by Police.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Into the slum life and the crowded east side districts of New York policemen and members of the water department, acting under the orders of Mayor Gaynor, are making an effort to relieve the condition of the poor children by giving them daily baths. The sweltering weather conditions have been flying right and left. Thousands of children sleep on the sidewalks, fire escapes and roofs of the crowded tenement district. The coming of the water men causes shouts of joy from the children, who have no objection to taking a bath on the public streets. All that is required in the bathing line is a breach cloth or towel. The children stand in the middle of the streets while the plugs of the fire hose are taken off and the water turned on. The police are placing no limit on the number of baths, and as a result crowds of boys follow up the bathing squad. The streets are blocked with the boys are given a bath, but the free street bathing is saving many lives.

Mrs. Wesley Metz left today for Beaver Falls where she will spend a few weeks with her husband who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wardley of Conneltsville were calling on Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Colburn last evening.

C. A. Nielsen of Greensburg was a caller in town Saturday evening.

Miss Margaret Orbin returned to her home at Pittsburgh this morning after spending a week with Miss Margaret Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delucka of Kittanning are visiting relatives in town.

F. Friebec of Conneltsville was calling on friends here yesterday. Dr. Alexander M. McClain of Post Falls, Idaho, and formerly a practicing physician of this place, is spending a few days with his brother, James S. McClain of Stauffer.

Mrs. Margaret Elbecka and Miss Ella and Hannah Elbecka returned to their home at Meigsdale this morning after spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Colburn.

About two weeks ago James Koszski, a miner of Alice, was arrested and committed to jail charged with assaulting a little 12 year old Polish girl of the same place, James Hrabak of town killed his friend out by placing a security of $500. In some way Hrabak felt that his money was not safe, so on Saturday morning he had a half peace issued. Constable James Ellis of town went to Alice after his man on Sunday morning, but the people whom Koszski boarded with did not want to part with him. The doors were locked and furniture used to bar the door. Koszski was finally arrested.

Edwin Braker of Greensburg was calling on friends in town yesterday.

George Scherzinger and Miss Virginia Anderson of Jeannette were in town last evening calling on friends.

E. M. Welty and William Horstkamp of Mammoth were calling on friends here Sunday.

Joseph Hartigan, a former resident of this place, but now of New Kensington, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Mary and Margaret Brice-man of Conneltsville are the guests of Miss Ruth Snyder of the East End.

Miss Margaret Blythe of Youngwood is visiting Miss Florence Miller. Sherick Blingman returned to his home at Latrobe Sunday after spending a few days with old friends in town. Mr. Blingman was at one time a merchant here, but has not been in town on a visit for 15 years.

Miss Stella Blouchette of Greensburg is visiting Miss Virgie Miller of this place.

BROOKINS CAME DOWN IN HURRY.

Aviator Was 6,175 Feet in Air When Fuel Gave Out.

TELLS OF WONDERFUL FEAT

After Exhausting His Last Bit of Gasoline in Order to Attain Highest Possible Altitude Brookins Came to Earth at Rate of 100 Miles an Hour.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 11.—Despite the protests of Aero club officials, who advised against a flight over the water, Capt. Brookins today allowed a lifeboat to stay off shore. Glenn Curtiss made an exhibition flight out to sea rather than disappoint the big crowd who had stood patiently along the boardwalk and on the beach for hours in the hope of getting a peep at an airship in action.

The flight lasted but five minutes but was a lively exhibition of skillful flying, the equally noteworthy feat of dipping the plane dangerously as Curtiss described circles over the breakers.

Walter Brookins, driving a Wright biplane, reached an altitude calculated at 6,175 feet over the ocean and broke all existing world's records for aerobically altitude.

This new record is expected to stand for a long time. Officials of the club and of the national council of the Aero club of America, who checked up the Brookins altitude measurements, have forwarded their records to the highest officials of aviation and expect the closely tallied record to stand without question.

"I feel fine," said Brookins. "Of course the strain on my nerves was terrific, but I was all right after a few hours' sleep. When I landed I had a splitting headache from the rush through the air, as I came down without power, but I never felt any real fear until I was forced to make my last sharp turn at high speed to prevent my machine dashing into the ocean. If my supply of gasoline had held out I firmly believe I could have added several hundred feet to the record of which I am proud."

"My greatest fear during the trip was that I would not be able to swing far enough out to sea to allow the engineers to get my measurements after my gasoline gave out. I realized when I heard my cylinders begin to pound that I had only a few seconds to stay at the altitude I had reached and I simply swung out on the level until I was sure that I had crossed the measuring line and then got back to earth in the best way I could."

"The machine behaved splendidly both on the long climb and while I was tearing down through the air at a speed that must have reached close to 100 miles an hour at the swiftest point."

Brookins declared that in spite of the heavy sweater coat and gloves which he wore that he was nearly frozen during his stay above 4,000 feet. "People thought me crazy when they saw me bundled up, but I needed every bit of clothing before I came down," Brookins remarked.

To be fair to the merchandise we offer—to present it just as it is without exaggerating its real value is the first principle of Wright-Metzler advertising. ### GOES UNDER WATER TWICE

Duke of Westminster Nearly Drowned Experimenting With Hydroplane. London, July 11.—The Duke of Westminster narrowly escaped drowning through the capsizing of a hydroplane in which he and three others were practicing off Cowes, Isle of Wight. The hydroplane was built especially to take part in the international races in America in August. It is forty feet long and is capable of making thirty-five knots an hour. The accident occurred three quarters of a mile from the shore in deep water. The duke was steering and attempted to turn too sharply. The hydroplane heeled over taking water over her stern until she capsized. The duke sank twice. Then Mr. Robins, his companion, grabbed him and held him up.

JEFF HAS HAD A-PLenty

Reports That He Wanted Return Match With Johnson Just Yarns. San Francisco, July 11.—The story of Jeffries wanting a return match with Johnson grew out of a remark made by Jeff to friends that with the nervous strain of the previous battle eliminated he could make a much better showing against the negro out of that some of Jeff's friends have been sending out yarns from Los Angeles that he wanted another fight. The real truth is that Jeff knows he is all in and that no promoter would give him any purse for another fight. None of the thousands who saw his wretched showing at Reno would cross the street to see him fight again.

WRITE MAN STRUNG UP

Louisiana Mob Lynches Prisoner Charged With Murder. Rayville, La., July 11.—Aroused by the fact that an appeal to the supreme court had been granted, following his condemnation to death here Friday on the charge of having murdered Town Marshal C. C. Chevalier, a mob battered down the doors of the parish jail at Rayville and, dragging J. D. Freeman, a white man, from his cell, hanged him on the same spot where he had slain the marshal. A deep gash in Freeman's throat indicated that he had attempted suicide, probably with a piece of glass, when he heard the mob approach. "This is the outcome of the appeal" was the note found pinned to the dead man's clothing.
